4. Tuition and education amounts (full-time and part-time) – Fill out this section if you are a student at a university, college, or educational institution certified by Employment and Social Development Canada, and you will pay more than $100 per institution in tuition fees. Enter your total tuition fees that you will pay, plus the amount from the following conditions that apply:

- $400 for each month you will be a full-time student
- $400 for each month you will be a part-time student who has a mental or physical disability
- $120 for each month you will be a part-time student who does not have a mental or physical disability

5. Disability amount – If you will claim the disability amount on your income tax and benefit return by using Form T2201, Disability Tax Credit Certificate, enter $6,890.

6. Spouse or common-law partner amount – Enter $11,466 if you are supporting your spouse or common-law partner and both of the following conditions apply:

- Your spouse or common-law partner lives with you
- Your spouse's or common-law partner's net income for the year will be $1,147 or less

You may enter a partial amount if your spouse's or common-law partner's net income will be between $1,147 and $12,613. To calculate a partial amount, fill out the line 6 section of Form TD1PE-WS.

7. Amount for an eligible dependant – Enter $11,466 if you are supporting an eligible dependant and all of the following conditions apply:

- You do not have a spouse or common-law partner, or you have a spouse or common-law partner who does not live with you and who you are not supporting or being supported by
- The dependant is related to you who lives with you
- The dependant has a net income of $1,147 or less for the year

You may enter a partial amount if the eligible dependant's net income for the year will be between $1,147 and $12,613. To calculate a partial amount, fill out the line 7 section of Form TD1PE-WS.

8. Caregiver amount – Enter $2,446 if you are taking care of a dependant and all of the following conditions apply:

- The dependant is your or your spouse's or common-law partner's parent or grandparent (aged 65 or older) or an infirm relative (aged 18 or older)
- The dependant lives with you
- The dependant has a net income of $11,953 or less for the year

You may enter a partial amount if the dependant's net income for the year will be between $11,953 and $14,399. To calculate a partial amount, fill out the line 8 section of Form TD1PE-WS.

9. Amount for infirm dependants age 18 or older – Enter $2,446 if you are supporting an infirm dependant and all of the following conditions apply:

- The dependant lives in Canada and is related to you or your spouse or common-law partner
- The dependant is 18 years or older
- The dependant has a net income of $4,966 or less for the year

You may enter a partial amount if the infirm dependant's net income for the year will be between $4,966 and $7,412. To calculate a partial amount, fill out the line 9 section of Form TD1PE-WS. You cannot claim an amount for a dependent you claimed on line 8.

10. Amounts transferred from your spouse or common-law partner – If your spouse or common-law partner will not use all of their age amount, pension income amount, tuition and education amounts, or disability amount on their income tax and benefit return, enter the unused amount.

11. Amounts transferred from a dependant – If your dependant will not use all of their disability amount on their income tax and benefit return, enter the unused amount. If your or your spouse's or common-law partner's dependent child or grandchild will not use all of their tuition and education amounts on their income tax and benefit return, enter the unused amount.

12. TOTAL CLAIM AMOUNT – Add lines 1 to 11.
Your employer or payer will use this amount to determine the amount of your provincial tax deductions.

Filling out Form TD1PE

Fill out this form if you have taxable income in Prince Edward Island and any of the following apply:

- you have a new employer or payer, and you will receive salary, wages, commissions, pensions, employment insurance benefits, or any other remuneration
- you want to change the amounts you previously claimed (for example, the number of your eligible dependants has changed)
- you want to increase the amount of tax deducted at source

Sign and date it, and give it to your employer or payer.

If you do not fill out Form TD1PE, your employer or payer will deduct taxes after allowing the basic personal amount only.

More than one employer or payer at the same time

- If you have more than one employer or payer at the same time and you have already claimed personal tax credit amounts on another Form TD1PE for 2024, you cannot claim them again. If your total income from all sources will be more than the personal tax credits you claimed on another Form TD1PE, check this box, enter "0" on line 12 and do not fill in lines 2 to 11.

Total income is less than the total claim amount

- Tick this box if your total income for the year from all employers and payers will be less than your total claim amount on line 12. Then your employer or payer will not deduct tax from your earnings.

Additional tax to be deducted

If you want to have more tax deducted at source, fill out section "Additional tax to be deducted" on the federal Form TD1.

Reduction in tax deductions

You may ask to have less tax deducted at source if you are eligible for deductions or non-refundable tax credits that are not listed on this form (for example, periodic contributions to a registered retirement savings plan (RRSP), child care or employment expenses, charitable donations, and tuition and education amounts carried forward from the previous year). To make this request, fill out Form T1213, Request to Reduce Tax Deductions at Source, to get a letter of authority from your tax services office. Give the letter of authority to your employer or payer. You do not need a letter of authority if your employer deducts RRSP contributions from your salary.
